LIST OF EVENTS

1. Young Ophthalmologists Night, 4 November 2015, Roadhouse

More than 50 residents, trainees and ophthalmologists attended this event. The event succeeded in its aim to promote interaction and collaboration amongst ophthalmologists in Singapore and Malaysia, especially the trainees and residents.

2. Mobile Eye Clinic Project (Seeing is Believing)

SSO, in partnership with Standard Chartered Bank, conducted a total of 3 community screenings last year under the 'Seeing is Believing' programme, 2 of which were held together with Changi General Hospital and the National University Hospital's Department of Ophthalmology. A total of 482 needy elderly were screened and 217 of them were identified with eye conditions requiring further follow-up with an eye specialist.

The eye screening with National University Hospital's Department of Ophthalmology took place on 10 and 11 November 2015 during the 5th Asia-Pacific Eye Care Week organized by Asia-Pacific Academy of Ophthalmology. For the first time, the screening was held alongside comprehensive general health screenings, with support from members of the Department of Family Medicine, Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine.
